WITH PORTUGAL.

PREPARATIONS IN TONQUIN. OPERATIONS NEAR HA-NOI AND BAC-NINH-TROUBLE

There are 10,000 troops in Canton prepared for a French attack. The Viceroy has complained of the departure of the Portuguese gunboat, and the negotiations may result in trouble between China and Portugal. Reports concerning assistance given by China to the Black Flags are confirmed, and it is feared that the latter will begin operations near Ha-Noi. An action between them and the French troops at Bac-Ninh is expected. Admiral Courbet is in command of the French. The roads near Tonquin are flooded, but the French have made several descents on the enemy's forces.

ASSISTING THE BLACK FLAGS.

FOREIGNERS WATCHED IN CANTON-AN INCIDENT WITH PORTUGAL.

LONDON, Oct. 22 .- A dispatch to The Standard from Hong Kong states that trustworthy advices from Yun-Nan confirm the report that the Chinese are assisting the Black Flags in Anam, who number 3,000 men, exclusive of those in the garrisons at Bac-Ninh and Sontay.

The Viceroy of Canton objects to foreigners traversing the streets of the city. He has 10,000 men concentrated in the vicinity of Canton estensibly on account of anticipated popular commotion, but doubtless really in readiness to resist an expected French attack. The Viceroy has asked for a loan of 1.000,000 taels, which he alleges is needed for the payment of losses incurred in the recent rioting. His agents are also asking for arms.

The Viceroy of Canton complains of the with-drawal of the Portuguese gunboat having on board the watchman who was charged with drowning a the watchman who was charged with drowning a Chinaman, the incident which led to the riots in that city has month. The Viceroy has demanded that the watchman be handed over to the British courts for trial. The Portuguese officials in reply said that the prisoner was at Macao. If the Chinese wished they could prosecute him there. This incident may lead to trouble with Portugal, as the Chinese have always objected to the presence of the Portuguese at Macao.

Reports concerning an approaching war with foreigners are circulating in the interior of China and the people in Yan-Nau believe that the Chinese army is preparing to wage a war of extermination

FEARS OF AN ATTACK FROM PIRATES. Hong Kong, Oct. 22,-Advices received to-day from Hai-Piong, Tonquin, say that the residents there are in fear of an attack from a thousand pirates who are encamped in the vicinity. The French garrison at Hai-Phong is small, but it is believed to be able to repel an attack by the pirates. Reinforcements for the garrison, however, are anxfously awaited.

There is great activity in the Chinese camp to the north of Ha-Noi, and it is feared that the Black Fings will soon assume offensive operations in that

SHANGHAI, Oct. 22.—The Chinese Admiral Tso-Tsung has arrived here with eight gunboats. Su George F. Bowen, the English Governor of Hong Kong, has left Pekin and is on the way to Hong Kong, after having had a satisfactory interview with Prince Kang, the Chinese Minister of Foreign

A FIGHT EXPECTED AT BAC-NINH.

Hovo Kono, Oct. 22 .- A decisive action of the French forces from Ha-Noi against the Black Flags at Bac-Ninh is impending. The weather is cool and the ground is rapidly drying. The French garrison at He-Noi is momentarily expecting 3,000 retuforcements, which will furnish an available force there of 7,000 men. Admiral Courbet has taken command and will immediately begin an active campaign.

The pirates who were menacing Hai-Phong were driven from the coast by French gunboats. The local newspapers state that the French have discovered that the forts at Bac-Ninh are mounted th Krupp guns and that they are too strong to be taken by assault.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Official advices received from Tonquin state that the roads are still flooded, but the weather has improved. Several raids have been made by the French forces to cut off the enemy's supplies. The health of the French troops is perfect. Admiral Meyer forwards a report that the Chinese troops which were encamped on the frontier near Mon-Kai have returned to Canton.

A PLOT TO KILL LORD LANSDOWNE

A CABINET COUNCIL SUMMONED. MEANS TAKEN TO PROTECT THE NEW GOVERNOR-

GENERAL. London, Oct. 22.-Much surprise has been created here by statements in certain dispatches received from America that the Canadian detectives have unearthed an unmistakable clew to a plot of dynamiteurs to murder Lord Lansdowne, the new Governor-General of Canada, when he lands at rumored discovery. Dispatches received from Quebec say that the report caused the greatest excitement there and in the adjoining country. The police informed Lord Lorne and the Dominion Ministers of their discovery and a Cabinet Council was hastily summoned. It met on Sunday and discussed the means to be taken to prevent any hostile demonstration against the new Governor-General.

EXCITEMENT IN QUEBEC.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER CIRCASSIAN-THE IN-NAUGURAL CEREMONIES.

QUEBEC, Oct. 22 .- The news of the alarming statements respecting the reported apprehensions of trouble concerning the Marquis of Lansdowne's arrival caused some excitement here to-night. It is not believed that any attempt has been made to conceal the time of his landing and the inaugural ceremonies. The party will probably land at about 9:30 to-morrow. The new Governor-General will be sworn in at 10 o'clock, and the party will start at noon for Ottawa by a special train.

A French paper to-nightsays that it is reported that some hot-headed Irishmen will made a demonstration hostile to the Marquis. It affects, however, not to believe the rumor, and says that it hopes that its Irish friends will have more sense. It moreover calls upon all French Canadians to rally around the new Governor, whose mother, it says, was a French woman. This is the sole reference made thus far in the city press to any anticipations of trouble. Leading Irishmen ridiculed any fear of trouble.

The Marquis of Lansdowne arrived at 9:10 p. m. The Circassian was first seen around the point of Indian Cove shortly after 8 o'clock, but an hour clapsed before she reached her wharf at Levis and made fast. The Government steamer Druid, with all the Cabinet Ministers on board, put off to meet her, and as soon as she was moored the Ministers boarded the vessel. The Marquis of Lansdowne was boarded the vessel. The Marquis of Lansdowne was presented to the whole party, all of whom, with the exception of the Governor-General, left the vessel and returned to the city. The Governor-General remained to make arrangements for swearing in to-morrow and to talk over official business. The Marchioness and the ladies of the party had retired for the night. Lord Lansdowne thanked the party for meeting him. He will not land until to-morrow. The Circassian had rongh weather, with strong casterly gales, during the voyage until the last two days. The Vice-Regal party were prostrated most of the way over.

A large number of rockets were fired from the Draid and Circussian, and from both sides of the fiver. No hostile demonstration of any kind occurred, and a large crowd on the Levis Wharf cheered lustily as the steamship came to her moorings. The party returned to the city at 9:45,

A COUNT KILLED IN A DUEL. TEMESVAI, Hungary, Oct. 22.-Count Stefan Battayanyi and Dr. Julius Resenberg fought a duel with pistols to-day. The Count was shot through the temple and killed.

The police have arrested Dr. Rosenberg and the The police have arrested Dr. Rosenberg and the seconds. It had been arranged prior to the duel that the combatants should advance five paces before firing. Neither of the men, however, availed himself of the opportunity, but each stood in his original position. Two shots were tired by each man without effect. At this juncture the seconds intervened and attempted to prevent a continuation of the duel, but their efforts were fruitless. The third shot was fired and Count Batthyany fell. An effort was made to extract the ball from the victual's brain, but without avail. The Count had married a lady who had previously been engaged to Dr. who had previously been engaged to Dr.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

INDEBTEDNESS TO PACIFIC ROADS.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The aggregate sum that will have to be returned to the subsidized Pacific Railroad Company, by the Government, in accordance with the recent decision of the Controller of the Treasury, on account of mail transportation over unsubsidized branch or leased lines during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1882. is $356,117. There was also withheld from these railroad companies during the same time under the Thurman Act. $85,851, on account of mails transported over un-subsidized portions of their main lines, and this sum will also have to be paid over to the companies. It is esti-mated that nearly $1,000,000 will be required to pay for such mail service for the fiscal years of 1882 and 1883. Serious inroads into the postal revenues are therefore an-ticipated. The major portion of the money to be returned terpated. The impor portion of the money to the reads will be secured by the Union Pacific Railroad

A JOINT RECEIVERSHIP PROPOSED. Chicago, Oct. 22.—The Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad lies part within the jurisdiction of Judge Drummoud and part within that of Judge Baxter of the United States Circuit Court. In August last Judge Drummond, with the concurrence of Judge Baxter, appointed E. E. Dwight receiver for the road. Recently Dwight applied to Judge Drummond for an order regarding the forecleaure of a mortgage on that part of the road within Judge Baxter's Jurisdiction. The matter came to Judge Baxter's knowledge, and he took offence, removed Dwight from the receivership within his jurisdiction, and appelinted W. J. Craig. This complicated matters, and fo-day counsel from Boston, Cincinnati and Toledo, representing the bondholders of the road, appeared before Judge Brummond, to ask him to dismiss Dwight and appoint Craig whin his jurisdiction. Judge Drummond replied that he saw no safficient reason therefor, but in the interest of the creditors he would yield a point to the extent of appointing Craig joint receiver with Dwight in his (Brummond's) territory, if Judge Baxter would appoint Dwight joint receiver with Craig in his (Baxter's) territory. Counsel will urge this proposition upon the consideration of Julge Baxter. of the United States Circuit Court. In August last

THE WARRING FACTIONS OF THE LOUISIANA DEMOCRACY.

New-Orleans, Oct. 22.—The Democratic State Central Committee met here this afternoon, with President John Fitzpatrick in the chair.

Previous to the meeting the McEnery and Ogden factions of the committee held a caucus. The McEnery men claimed that they had a majority of ten, and decided to oust Mr. Fitzpatrick, who is considered inimical to McEnery. Accordingly in the convention General Jastremski, of Bston Rouge, moved that the committee reorganize. The chairman said that he held office until the next State Convention, therefore the motion was out of order. General Jastremski appealed from the decision and called for the yeas and mays, with the following result: Yeas 42, mays 31. The Chair decided that the motion was lost, a two-thirds vote being required. Mr. Knoblock said that the decision of the Chair was revolutionary (which was received with shouts and cheers), and that he would not abide by it. He then moved that Vice-President J. B. Eustace be elected president. The motion was carried. Mr. Eustace then

Mr. Fitzpatrick here said: " I am chairman, and cannot be run out by a crowd. This is revolutionary, and I de-clare the meeting of the State Central Committee ad-journed." Noise and confusion prevailed. Mr. Meally said: "I am a Democrat, and I never witnessed anything of this kind before. There is no precedent for such pro-recedings."

of this kind before. There is no precedent for such proceedings."

A commity member here snatched the secretary's papers, but Mr. Fitzpatrick declared they were the property of the committee. Mr. Fitzpatrick and twenty-five or thirty members then withdrew. Congressman King, by permission, spoke against the present proceedings. He said he did not think that Mr. Eustace was elected, and wanted a committee of five to wait upon the brothers who had left and enden or to effect a reconciliation. A committee was finally appointed to inform the absent members of the time of meeting of the committee, so that they could return and be present. The meeting then adjourned until te-morrow.

The botting members held a meeting, at which a resolution was adopted to draw up an address to the cliticus of the State setting forth the proceedings of the committee and the revenitionary action.

A CONNECTICUT COURT IN A FIX.

LOCKED OUT OF THE COURT-ROOM WITHOUT FOOD AND LACKING THE CHIEF WITNESS. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TEIBUSE].

Newton, Conn., Oct. 22.-For alleged vio lation of the Sunday Equor law Mrs. W. I. Dick, of Dick's Hotel; Houlahan, of the Grand Central; Edward Taylor, Edward Troy, Patrick Campbell, Mrs. Patrick Callahan, Patrick Carroll, over Warner and one Clark were arrested on October 10, and gave bonds for their appearance in court on October 20. The court was to have been held in the Town Hall, but it having leaked out that the system had been adopted to obtain evidence against the arrested dealers, somebody took the trouble to lock

Nothing daunted, however, court was opened on the front steps, and all the formalities of a justice's court gone through with. At a certain stage of the proceedings it was ascertained that the cinef witness was missing and could nowhere be found. Search was made and court adjourned for dinner. Then a new source of trouble arose; every hotel in the village was closed to the lawyers and witnesses of the prosecution, and crackers and cheese, bought by one of the defendants was all could be obtained for a meal. Late a further postponement of the court was had. The absent a further postponement of the court was had. The absent witness, it seems, was a person from out of town, sent as a spy to trap the hotel-keepers into a violation of the sunday inw. Tanking that he had succeeded, he reported his action to the County Commissioners, who ordered the arrests. The defendants, or their threads, sparted him away at the moment he was most wanted, and to say a warrant granted by Justice Hall, of Bridgeport, was besued to compel his attendance. The hearing in the liquor cases will proceed to morrow.

TARRING AND FEATHERING AN ORGAN. SINGULAR RESULT OF A CHURCH QUARREL IN NEW-JERSEY.

IRY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBENE.

NEWTON, N. J., Oct. 22.-The squabble in which the Methodist Episcopal Church of Wallpack Centre, in this county, has been engaged for the past ten years, has developed a singular phase. When the churc is built some ten years ago the church people were divided on the subject of the site. Later their choir became the centre of the quarrel. A part of the congregation wanted the organist and singers of the choice, while others were opposed to them. For a few weeks back the feeling has been getting more and more bitter. A few feeling has been getting more and more bitter. A few days ago there was to have been a special service in the church, for whilen mother organist was engaged. The audience was amassed to find on gathering at the church that some one had entered the claurch, and, after damping the organ inside and out with tar, had sprinkled on a benutial supply of feathers. The whole organ, cover, keyboard, stops, pedads and every part, had re-ceived the double coat. There is great excitement in the community over the deed, the more so as there can be found no clew to the perpetrator of the singular action.

A DOG FIGHT ON LONG ISLAND.

A large number of New-York and Brooklyn sporting men visited a resort in the immediate vicinity of Laurel Hill, Long Island, last night, for the purpose of witnessing a fight that had been arranged, some four or five days ago between "Harry" Alber's brindle dog Jumbo and John Flood's white dog Scalp. The fight was for $250 a side. Jumbo was much the larger dog, weighing $250 a side. Jumbo was much the larger dog, weighing 37 pounds, while scalp weighed only 32 pounds. The betting was in favor of Scalp at the start, but it soon changed when the dogs entered the pit. Charles Coyle, of New-York, hendled Jumbo, and William Jones handled Scalp. Joseph Romey, of New-York, was referee.

Jimbo was the first to lead, getting Scalp right by the back of the neek, and winning the first toss. Scalp soon recovered and fought on, but it soon became evident that Jumbo was the best dog, and bets were freely offered of 2 to 1 on him, with no takers. Both dogs were sponged down, but Scalp turned tail and the fight was given to the Jumbo people. Jumbo is a recent importation from England, and he has already won four fights, killing two of his antagonists.

MIDERMOTT'S DEFENCE.

NATIONAL CAPITAL TOPICS. GARLINGTON'S INSTRUCTIONS.

GENERAL HAZEN SAYS THERE WERE NO SUPPLE-

MENTARY ORDERS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE,) Washington, Oct. 22 .- There is still some nystery about the so-called "supplementary instructions" to Lieutenant Garlington. Speaking of them to-day to a Critic reporter General Hazen said: "There never were any supplementary instructions, and I never said that there were any. The questions of supplementary instructions will be looked into and inquired after until more is learned about the report that they existed. At the time the report was circuated and when the first telegram was received here I was in Washington Territory. Some one in this office not acquainted with the facts gave it out that there were supplementary instruction to Garlington, in which he was "The paper referred to as supplementary orders was a memorandum made for the Secretary of the Navy, at his request, and to aid him in making his orders for the convoy. The history of that paper is correctly given in my remarks to Secretary Lincoln accompanying Lieuten ant Garlington's report." Ou the afternoon of the day that the dispatch announc-

On the afternoon of the day that the dispatch announcing the loss of the Proteus was received, a Thirdex corresondent called at the Signal Office and asked for a copy of Lieutenant Garlington's instructions. Captain Caziare, to whom the application was made, gave him a copy of the original instructions, with the remark that there was a supplementary order directing Lieutenant Garlington to land the bulk of his supples at or near Lifeboat Cove before proceeding northward. It was late in the day, and Captain Caziare said that, as the clerks had gone home, he would not be able to inrulsh a copy of the supplementary order until the next morning. The next forenoon Captain Caziare gave the correspondent a paper which he said was a true copy of the supplementary instructions. It was printed in The TRIBLING of September 15.

At that time certainly Captain Caziare believed that the supplementary instructions were issued for the guidance of Lieutenant Garlington, and Secretary Lincoln then spoke of them in a manner to indicate that he too thought so.

SOME RECENT MISSTATEMENTS.

THE PRESIDENT LEARNS SOMETHING OF HIS OWN MOVEMENTS-HYPERCRITICISM.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Oct. 22.-It must be exasperating to the President occasionally to learn for the first time through the newspapers of his own doings, for he is thought to be a man who does not like to be regarded as "slow." The other morning, as the latest story runs,

It is pleasant to be told, however, that as a result "the absenteeism complained of among the employes at the White House has ceased to exist." The remarkable thing about this affair is that according to trustworthy information, the first that the President, his private secretary, clerks and other employes knew about it, they learned from the newspapers." This igation to ascertain whether or not the clerks, messengers and servants about the Executive Mandon are early risers and promptly at their posts of duty; and, also, as the story runs, he found that they were laggard.

shows what well-directed journalistic enterprise will The President is also informed in the same manner hat in the Treasury Department "persons are on the roll t round salaries" who do no work whatever; that " a dimilar state of things exists in the Post Office Department"; that "the same evil is rooted in the War and Navy Departments," and that "the Interior Department is notoriously a sumer in this way." The author of this tale is careful not to specify a single case or to produce an lota of evidence in support of the charge as to either of the Departments. The heads of three of those Departments remarked to-day that they would be giad to have he individuals pointed out who are drawing salaries for which they render no services. It is probably true that among the 8,000 or 9,000 Government employes in Washington there are a few who, athough less efficient than the average, are retained ou athough less efficient than the average, are retained on the rolls partly in consideration of long and faithful set lee and partly for other reasons. In the Post-office Department, for example, the chief clerk in the office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General is the venerable James H. Marr. Congress has provided that so long as he holds this office he shall receive $2.500 a year, $500 more than the regular compensation. Another clerk in the same Department has been in the postal services more than half a century. Probably neither of these ment can do as much work now as younger men would do in their places.

In the Interior Department a clerk recently died who had been employed in one of the bureaus nearly sixty years. In another Department a needy female descendant of George Washington's relatives was appointed not long ago, it was universtood at the solicitation of General W. S. Hancock and others who knew of her merits and iong ago, it was universtood at the solicitation of General W. S. Hancock and others who knew of her medias and necessities. In the War Department is a grand-size of Kosciusko. It is understood thatest-dovernor Curtin, who is deeply interested in her welfare, secured her appointment. In the interior Department is employed a great-granddaughter of Thomas Jefferson. Her little salary supports her aged and invalid mother, who is the last surviving grand-haid of Jefferson. It is possible that in some of these cases and perhaps in a few other like cases the persons employed are not able to do as much work for the money they receive as others do; yet they perform their dutles to the best of heir ability and none of them receives a large salary.

THE MONUMENT ORDERED BY CONGRESS COM-PLETED.

Washington, Oct. 22.-Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas L. Casey, Corps of Engineers, who was charged with the execution of the joint resolution of Congress providing for the crection of a monument over the grave of Thomas Jefferson, at Monticelle, Va., has made a report to the Secretary of State announcing the completion of that work. The burying-ground at Monticello is upon a hillside in a thick grove of second growth pines, oaks and other deciduous trees. The estate of Monticello, excepting the family graveyard, with full access to the latter, is new owned by T. J. Levy, of New-York City. The ground was surrounded by a wooden fence, and the old monument to Mr. Jefferson was much worn by the weather and disfigured by relic-hunters. In the inclosure were a num. ber of other graves-of Randolphs, Garretts, Bankheads and Carrs. The work just completed consisted in the grading, seeding and solding of the surface; the repairng of six of the old graves; the erection of a new monument over the grave of Mr. Jefferson, and the building of a strong and handsome fence about the burying ground. The monument consists first of two foundation courses the lower twelve feet square and the next eight feet square, and each nine inches in height-which cover the grave of Mr. Jefferson and four of his kindred, who are grave of Mr. Jefferson and four of his kindred, who are bursed at his head and feet and either side. These foundation stones are surmounted by a die, four feet square at the base and three feet seven inches in height, and this by a granite obelist three feet two inches square at the base and twelve feet eleven inches high. The total height of the monument above the ground is, therefore, eighteen feet. The insertition composed by Mr. Jefferson and, in accordance with his directions, placed on the obelisk is as follows: "Here was buried—Thomas Jefferson—Author of the Declaration of American Independence, of the Statute of Virginia—for—religious freedom—and father of the University of Vincinia." And upon the die, "Born April 2, 1843 O. S.—Died July 4, 1826." On the apper surfaces of the loar sides of the lower foundation "Born April 2, 1843 of the lower foundation step are inscriptions marking the four graves above mentioned as surrounding that of Mr. Jefferson, viz: The grave of Martha Jefferson, his wife, those of Martha J. Eandelph and Maria J. Eppas, his daughters, and of Governor Thomas M. Rendelph his son-in-law.

The total expenditure for the work was $8,352, leaving a balance of $1,018 of the appropriation still unexpended.

VIEWS OF DEMOCRATIC LEADERS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Oct. 22.—Several Democratic statesmen are in Washington this week. Ex-Senator Tharman came several days ago to attend to some busiuess before the Supreme Court. He is reticent as to polities, but several industrious "interviewers," upon paring notes after attempts to draw him out, agree that ne considers Ohlo sure for the Democrats next year; that under no circumstances will be engage in the Ohio enatorial contest, and that he thinks Mr. Pendleton will e his own successor. Ex-Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, is visiting statesimen. He is said to regard MeDonald as the counting man for the Presidency and to consider him

the most available candidate the Democrats can find.
Senator Vance, of North Carolina, is also here and he dechaves that the jubiliant Democrats of that State are solid for "MeDonald and victory in 1884." Governor Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, having reached the summit of his political ambition, is spending a few days at the National capital, where he is extremely popular, in conjunction with Librarian Spofford he is engaged in the preparation of a literary work—a book on wit and humor, itels also looking after some claims of his state against the National Government on account of expenses incurred in the suppression of the rebellion. Governor
